

Gotland Card

A card full of experiences.

Gotland is an island with lots to discover. With a GotlandCard, you not only get free travel on public transport, you also get free admittance to twelve museums, including the Gotland Museum, which features the world's largest Viking-era silver treasure. The card also includes lots of other attractions and activities for the whole family:

- Free green fee,
- free go-cart,
- free admittance to indoor and outdoor pools,
- free one-day bicycle rental,
- free guided city tour,
- free football golf and miniature golf,
- discount at selected cafés,
- discount at selected designer shops

And those are just a few examples! Turn to page 2 for all offers included in GotlandCard!

With the GotlandCard you can save thousands of kronor on the island. The card is valid for three days between 14 June and 31 August 2010.

If you'd like to buy more cards while on Gotland, visit the Tourist Office in Visby or one of two museums: the Bungemuseet in the north or the Bottarve Museigård in the south. We hope you have a pleasant stay on Gotland with your GotlandCard!

If you'd like to know more about the card and its benefits, contact the Tourist Office in Visby on phone +46 498 20 17 00.

Welcome to Gotland – the island of possibilities.
